-Are not doctors' estimates upon the health of women somewhat overvalued? The practical workings of their profession bring them into contact with few but invalid women. There are women to be found, and in pretty rougd numbers in every community, who never had five minutes' intimate acquaintance with a doctor in their lives; what do the M. D.'s know of the mode of life and habits of thought of these? Their friends, however, are ast to know them as the women who give the least idle thought to their own mental or physical construction; who seem to forget that they have a body; who talk least loudly about their handicapped condition, but show in all they touch what the old New Englanders called "faculty."—Boston Transcript.

KIMMERNALES, N. ..

The cactus magnar is a Florida plant, the fibers of whose long, thick leaves make the strongest cord and rope. Its juice furnishes a pleasant but not intoxicating beverage. After the plant blooms it dies, and the trunk can then be deprived of its heart or pith and makes water-buckets, pitchers and other utensils.

A Half Dollar Trial.

A Haif Dollar Trial,

Mr. Ernest King, chitor of the Fall River (Mass.) Sun, thus discourses upon the merits of St. Jacobs Oil: "Suffering with rheumatic pains I was Didymus as to remedies. I read of St. Jacobs Oil and said here goes for a haif dollar trial. I bought a bottle and before it was half used the screw-wrench pains had gone and troubled me no longer."

THERE won't be any need of searching for the North Pole for the next four mouths.

Cot. C. W. Henneur, of the Forest Park Restaurant, St. Louis, Mo., was entirely cured of rheumatism by St. Jacobs Oil, says the St. Louis Post-Dispetch.

Tou B has a voung brother and a young lady sister, and Tou B is a mighty hard one to keep up with. His sister had a beau the other night, and just as the conversation became interesting the little brother walked in "Well," said his sister, "what do you want here!" "I want to whisper something to you," was the reply. "Tisu't polite to whisper in company; siscent right out like a little man." "But I don't like to." "Yes, but you must, so Mr. J. can see how bright you are." "All right, then. Bother Tou told me to ask you what was the date of your last bustle, for he can't find to-day's paper high nor low, and he left it in your room just before sup.e." Tom left on the midnight train for a trip South, and his house is not expecting him back before the list of May. The young lady may recover by that time.—The Drumnier.

Almost Persunded.

It is not to be wondered at that chronic dyspeptics are peevlah, cross and nervous. The disease poisons the blood, weakens the kidneys and shatters the nervous system. To those who feel almost persuaded to try that never failing cure for dysepals and peneral weakness known as Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarmaparilla, we desire to say you make a great mistake by delaying. Now is the time. It will positively restore you to health, strength and vigor. It is the prescription of an eminent physician and is composed of Yellow Dock, Sarsap utila, Juniper, Iron, Buchu, Celery and Ca isaya.
